An Act to make provision for the appointment of members of the Malawi Electoral Commission; for the establishment of a secretariat for the Malawi Electoral Commission; and for matters incidental thereto and connected therewith.

ENACTED by the Parliament of Malawi as follows—

Short title
11 of 2023

1. This Act may be cited as the Malawi Electoral Commission Act.

Interpretation
11 of 2023
Cap 2:01
32 of 2018

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the several words and expressions used in this Act shall have the same meanings assigned to them in the Constitution and the Presidential, Parliamentary and Local Government Elections Act, and the following additional words shall have the following meaning-

“Chairman” means the Chairman of the Commission;

“Chief Elections Officer” means the Chief Elections Officer appointed under section 12;

“Commission” means the Malawi Electoral Commission established under section 75(1) of the Constitution;

PART II

STATUS AND MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMMISSION

Legal personality and capacity of the Commission

3. The Commission shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and be capable of—

- (a) acquiring, holding and disposing of real and personal property;
- (b) suing and being sued in its own name; and

- (c) doing or performing all such acts and things as bodies corporate may by law do or perform.

Appointment of members of the Commission
32 of 2018

4.— (1) The President shall, subject to section (75) of the Constitution and in accordance with subsections (2), (3) and (4), appoint suitably qualified persons to be members of the Commission on such terms and conditions as the Public Appointments Committee of Parliament shall determine.

(2) Leaders of political parties represented in the National Assembly which secured more than one tenth of the national vote in election to that Parliament, shall submit to the President a maximum of three persons as the political parties nominees as members of the Commission provided that where the President notes that all nominees used for such adequate number as is required under subsection (3), are not qualified under the Constitution for this Act to hold office as a Commissioner, the President shall return the names to nominating political parties within a reasonable time and in any event before appointing the members of the Commission and the nominating political party shall resubmit a final list of nominees within seven days of receipt of such notification.

(3) Upon receipt of the nominees, as provided under subsection (2), the President shall appoint members of the Commission from the nominees in proportion to the nominating political parties' representation in the National Assembly as determined by the previous General Elections.

(4) In the event a vacancy in the membership of the Commission before the expiry of the term of a commissioner, the President shall notify the political party that nominated the commissioner whose office has fallen vacant to submit a minimum of three names within 14 days of the notification and the President shall appoint a Commissioner from those names within a reasonable time, provided that proviso to subsection (2), shall apply to this subsection mutatis mutandis.

(5) The remuneration and any allowance of a member of the Commission may not be reduced during his period of office without his consent, and may be increased at such intervals as the Public Appointments Committee of Parliament may determine.

(6) Subject to the Constitution, a member of the Commission may be removed from office on the following grounds—

- (a) incompetence;
- (b) incapacity;
- (c) bankruptcy; and
- (d) where the member is so compromised to the extent that his or her ability to impartially exercise the duties of his or her office is seriously in question.

(7) A person shall not qualify for appointment as a member of the Commission under subsection (1) unless the person possesses a minimum educational qualification of a bachelor's degree obtained from an institution recognized or accredited under the National Council for Higher Education Act.

(8) A member of the Commission may resign from his office at any time by notice in writing to the President.

Eligibility for appointment to the Commission

5. No person who is a candidate in any election or is a serving employee of the Commission shall be eligible to be appointed a member of the Commission or any of its committees.

6.— (1) Every individual member and employee of the Commission shall perform the functions and exercise the powers provided for in this Act independently of the direction or interference of—

- (a) any public office;
- (b) any organ of the Government;
- (c) any political party;
- (d) any candidate; or
- (e) any person whatsoever or organization whatsoever:

Provided that for the purpose only of accountability the Commission shall be answerable, and report directly, to the President on the overall fulfillment of the functions and powers of the Commission.

(2) Upon assuming his office or immediately thereafter, every member of the Commission shall take an oath of office before the Chief Justice in the prescribed form.

Committees of the Commission

7.— (1) For the better carrying into effect of its functions, the Commission may establish such number of committees as it shall deem appropriate, to perform, subject to section 9, any of its functions and carry out such other responsibilities as the Commission may direct.

(2) A committee of the Commission may consist of either members of the Commission only or members of the Commission and such other suitably qualified persons as the Commission may deem fit.

(3) The Commission shall appoint the chairman of each committee from only amongst the members of the Commission.

(4) The provisions of this Act relating to meetings of the Commission shall apply mutatis mutandis to the meetings of its committees.

(5) Every committee of the Commission shall act in accordance with any direction given to it in writing by the Commission.

PART III
